

BAND OF ONE · PRELIMINARY, NOT LEGAL CLEARANCE

Brand Name Options & Conflict Check

Five shortlisted names, the preliminary screen, and why Band of One was selected.

Brand Name Options & Preliminary Conflict Check

Important: This is a preliminary screen for obvious conflicts: web search, a trademark database search (Justia Trademarks, which mirrors USPTO filings), and a live check of the obvious domain. It is not legal clearance. Before you spend money on a domain, print materials or a trademark filing, run a USPTO search yourself (<https://tmsearch.uspto.gov>) and consider a trademark attorney if you plan to register the mark.

Selected working name: Band of One

Meaning: A one-person business is a "band of one": you play every instrument (sales, delivery, admin, marketing). The brand promises systems that help one person sound like a whole, well-rehearsed band.

Tagline: Practical AI systems for businesses of one.

Why it won: - Memorable, human and gender-neutral (a twist on "one-man band"). - It does not sound like a generic AI tool, which helps credibility. - It works for both businesses: products ("the Band of One Prompt Library") and content ("Band of One: field notes for businesses of one"). - No business, software or education conflicts found in our checks (details below).

Decisions that need your approval

1. Approve "Band of One" as the business name (or pick a backup).
2. Choose and buy a domain. Suggested order to check: bandofone.co , bandofonehq.com , thebandofone.com , bandof.one . Prices vary by registrar and extension, and renewal prices are often higher than first-year promos. Our launch budget reserves up to $35/year as an estimate; confirm the actual first-year and renewal price before buying.
3. Reserve social handles: try @bandofonehq everywhere for consistency (@bandofone is taken on Instagram by a musician).
4. Optional: a USPTO knockout search before any paid branding work.
